It is my pleasure to welcome the players, coaching staff and supporters of Mt Albert-Ponsonby AFC to the Matamata Domain. Our visitors have had a good start to the season, are in fine goal scoring form and look to be in the top tier of team's in this year's NRFL Division 1. It's my personal belief that today will more than likely be our toughest home fixture of the first part of the season.

Today sees us embark on the first part of a rather unique double header. Our records, such that they are, show that we've never met Mt Albert-Ponsonby in a competitive game of football. And now, thanks to the vagaries of the Chatham Cup draw, we're scheduled to meet today's opponents twice in two weeks. What is it they say about London buses...?

We were certainly hoping for a far easier task as we look to make it through the first round of the cup for the first time since 2007. A comfortable home tie against a local Wai/BOP team would have been ideal. As it is we've probably been given the toughest draw imaginable at this stage of the competition. Such are the joys of the cup.

NRFL Division 1 is turning into a fascinating competition. The cut-throat nature of the first round, with everyone playing each other only once while gunning for a top six spot, appears to be leading to some great matches and some interesting results. At this stage it looks like there are twelve teams that realistically have a shot at making the top six, so every match, along with every point gained, is vital.

As the new boys on the block it is pleasing to know that we are in the mix. We've probably dropped a few more points away from home than we should have, so that means our home games become even more vital. Today's fixture promises to be a cracker!
