

PULLING A SWIFT ONE

Official Matamata AFC match day programme

Matamata Swifts v Manurewa AFC

NRFL Division 1A

Saturday July 31, 2010

Matamata Domain, Matamata

Kick-off 2.45pm

A Few Kind Words

Today is one of the few times this year we'll have all three of our senior mens teams playing at home on the same Saturday afternoon. While our facilities make this something of a logistical, er, challenge, it'll be great to have a full clubrooms and a decent amount of people buzzing around the Domain.

This afternoon we welcome Manurewa to our small community for what promises to be our toughest challenge of the season so far. I recall playing against Manurewa back in the late-1990's although, from memory, that was when a number of reserve teams populated the Northern League, so I expect this is the first time we've played their first team. Manurewa have started well in Division 1A and will be eyeing promotion back to the premier league, while we haven't done quite as well as we'd have liked so far. Both sides face pressure of differing types this afternoon, so the fans will be in for a good one.

I'd like to pass on a couple of congratulations before I finish up today. Firstly, to Coops who became a Dad for the first time this week - nice work mate and best wishes from everyone associated with the club. Secondly, I'd like to say a big well done to New Zealand Football for their Whole of Football plan. There's no space to go into any depth about it here, but I think it's a really positive piece of work. We all now have to help them make it happen.

Hopefully most of you will hang around for tonight's quiz. These things are usually good for a few laughs so I hope to see you all a bit later on. You might even learn something...!
